

An Invitation to Join the Texas Association of Cactus and Succulent Societies

Purpose

The purpose of this organization is conservation, education and information dissemination as well as activity coordination among the affiliate societies.

Meetings

TACSS has two scheduled meetings per year. There is a business meeting held in Austin in conjunction with the ACSS Spring Show & Sale. The second annual meeting takes place in the form of a seminar hosted by one of the affiliate societies in the fall.

Membership

TACSS membership categories include society membership (through affiliate societies – dues are paid by the society which distributes TACSS publications) and associate membership (dues are paid by individuals who receive direct mailing of TACSS publications).

Dues

Membership dues are $2.00 per year for society members (paid by member society) and $5.00 per year for associate member families (one or more individuals residing at the same address).

Publications

At least two TACSS newsletters are printed and distributed by the Executive Director to all affiliate societies and associate members each year.
